Consumption, Exchange, & Material Culture
The Eleventh Annual History Graduate Conference
Syracuse University

Friday, March 22, 2019
Hosted by the Department of History Future Professoriate Program

Sponsored by:
The History Department, the Graduate School, the Graduate Student Organization, the Political Science Department, the Department of English, the Department of Religion, the Department of African American Studies, and the Sociology Department

Session 1 (9:15-10:45)
Class and Correspondence: Eggers 151
Moving People: Eggers 225B
Print and Piety: Eggers 400A

Session 2 (11:00-12:30)
Commodification in the Atlantic World: Eggers 151
Consuming Power: Eggers 225B
Music, Consumerism, and Political Performance: Eggers 400A

Keynote (2:15-3:15) Maxwell 204
Katherine Pence, City University of New York’s Baruch College
“Sparking Joy in the Not-so-Tidy Historiography of Consumption”

Session 3 (3:30-5:00)
Memories and Sites of Violence: Eggers 151
Unconventional Capitalism: Eggers 100A
Development, Reform, and Modernization: Eggers 400A