Small Groups
& Microteaching

ITAs and domestic TAs will meet together in small groups to debrief and reflect. During this time, you will also begin microteaching — a practice teaching exercise. The five-minute presentation that you prepared prior to your arrival at TA Orientation will be recorded and critiqued in a constructive and supportive manner by your Teaching Mentor and small group.

Leaders: Teaching Mentors

Bring your microteaching presentation materials (if any) to this session.

11:45 a.m. - 12:45 p.m.

Schine Student Center or Ernie Davis Dining Hall

Lunch

Lunch will be provided for all orientation participants. Please remember to bring your meal coupon (see Meals note on page 7).

1:00 - 3:30 p.m.

Small Groups
& Microteaching II

You will meet with your small group at this time for additional debriefing and discussion. Your recorded microteaching presentations will be critiqued in a constructive and supportive manner in your small group. Orientation evaluations will be completed during this session. These evaluations will be done online so please bring an appropriate device.
